

Lynette Allen has done it again! Using real scenarios and real issues, she has written the perfect self-help book for teachers - giving ideas, tips and strategies for the classroom, as well as the woman herself. Teaching, marking, preparing...the pressure for teachers is outstanding, the demand on their time and energy is just unimaginable...oh, if only marking and nits were the only plague of their lives! Split into three sections, this book looks at: The Teacher - the variety of stressful/difficult scenarios teachers now face; The Woman - outside of the classroom; and The Skills - coaching skills for teachers.
