

Preparing Your FSBO Home for Sale

Part of making your house for sale is presenting an image of immediate move in condition. As a former carpenter, I list the repairs needed to present that image needed to sell by owner. To sell your home, the first impression a prospective buyer sees will make or break the sale. Gutters hanging from your house, a hole in the roof, old peeling paint; these are repairs that need to be made before even thinking of selling your home. If you want to learn how to sell your home, you need to first learn the tips for selling your home. Presenting a well groomed house is one of the first tips to selling your home by owner.
