

Gods Greatest Passion: Every Christian, Everywhere, Sharing Jesus

Author, H.L. Hussmann, was once so afraid of sharing his faith that he spent two days in a row vomiting in a hotel room. Sixteen years later it is his passion and he has talked with people about the Gospel from Trinidad to Thailand and from Boston to the Bahamas. The first half of Gods Greatest Passion is motivational:-Why should Christians evangelize?-How can Christians overcome their fear of evangelism?-5 common misconceptions Christians have about sharing Jesus with others-What does the reality of Hell have to do with outreach?-Is evangelism essential for the Christian?The second half is practical:-Dozens of outreach ideas anyone with someone for anyone of any age-Easy ways to start conversations and turn them toward the Gospel-Practical apologetics - how to answer difficult questions-Soulwinning methods for the boldest and the most timid among usYou dont want to miss the chapter Jesus and the Pink Little Bunny. Every Christian has the privilege and responsibility of sharing the love and message of Jesus with the world around them but many have never learned how or been motivated to do so. Gods Greatest Passion will do just that. Whether you are a Christian who already shares their faith regularly or a believer who has never done so, Gods Greatest Passion has much to offer. Each chapter is designed to be read, not only by individuals, but to be used in small group or Sunday School settings as well.
