

Tablet to Table Vol 1 Issue 3

With cooking shows so prevalent on our televisions these days, it may come as no surprise that cooking itself was instrumental in launching television to a predominantly female audience. For our feature article, Jill Adams looks at Mrs Dione Lucas, and how her cooking demonstrations informed the beginnings of television in Australia. In keeping with the TV theme, we uncover the story behind TV dinners, as well as running through some of the groundbreaking cooking shows that have graced Australian, American and British television screens. We also take in the impact of the Australian Womens Weekly, and present a gallery of some of their amazing covers across the last century. Former Masterchef Australia contestant Phil Vakos steps up as our guest chef and turns his Greek eye to one of Dione Lucas signature recipes the French chocolate roll known as Roulage Leontine. See Phils creation appear before your very eyes through the magic of video embedded into our pages. And, from the archives of William Angliss Institute, we present more recipes from a rural community cookbook collection, incorporating special comments from our community cooks, Brenda and Maria: Stuffed Prunes Chilli Con Queso (Dip) Minestrone Soup Lasagna alla Genovese Carbonnade de Boeuf (Beef Casserole) Spiced Pork (for 12)
