

Our Big Adventure: Part 2

This book can be read independently of part one. It is the story of two people who decide to give up their jobs, sell their house in the UK, and take two years off work to make the trip of a lifetime in a Motorhome. In part one they headed north to Scandinavia and the Baltic states of Europe. This volume covers the trip south, as they travel to such far flung places as Albania and Turkey. Its about the fun and excitement they have on their life adventure and the fulfilment of a dream. This is their story of the interesting people they meet and the places they visit. So even if you cannot get out of your rat race and have a life adventure of your own, join this one, as they take a fun and fascinating trip around Europe.
