

The Crabby Old Git On Weddings (A Laugh Out Loud Comedy)

The Crabby Old Git on Weddings The Old Git hates weddings but Maude says he has to go. He knows it'll be a disaster, and sure enough, it looks as though he's on the money. Crabby really gets the hump when he discovers Maude's planning to turn the wedding invitation into a romantic weekend. He'd rather be in his shed. Can Crabby escape Maude's amorous advances? Will the vicar stay sober long enough to get through the marriage vows? Should the photographer leg it? Enjoy a good giggle as the Old Git retells the tale of his weekend from hell to his best mate, Reg. It'll get you thinking about every wedding you've ever been to: Relatives arguing; jostling for position on the wedding photos; the Best Man who should know better, and as for the chocolate fountain... Sound familiar? Authors Note The Crabby Old Git on Weddings is a satirical short story of around 14,500 words, a few of which are a bit naughty!
