

EL CAMINO PRIMITIVO A SANTIAGO (Spanish Edition)

El Camino Primitivo a Santiago es el primero, el mas historico, la madre de todos los peregrinajes, desde que en el ano 814 el rey Alfonso II el Casto, junto a su corte, resolviera viajar a Santiago de Compostela para ver con sus propios ojos la recién descubierta tumba del apostol Santiago. Siguiendo los pasos del rey asturiano, el experimentado viajero y peregrino Jorge Sanchez inicia a pie en Oviedo, junto a dos companeros, ese difícil y denodado peregrinaje durante un helado mes de enero, padeciendo lo indecible para alcanzar Santiago de Compostela atravesando los altos collados de la Cordillera Cantabrica. Los tres peregrinos sufren caidas, frio atroz, llegan empapados de lluvia a los albergues, que en su mayoria carecen de calefaccion y mantas... Pero a cambio reciben como regalo una naturaleza pura, desbordante, como es la asturiana, quedandose admirados ante su magnificencia. Una vez en Galicia los albergues mejoran de manera significativa y pueden asi, via Lugo, alcanzar Santiago de Compostela regocijados hasta el maximo de los extremos por todo cuanto han visto y sentido, para abrazar agradecidos la tumba del Santo.
