

The Complete Guide to Bicycling in Canada

Canadas diverse scenery and uncrowded country roads attract cyclists from all over the world. Elliot Katz, the Canadian Cycling Association and dedicated cycle tourists share the secrets of their best routes, and offer their professional experience. You can: -Choose from more than one hundred tours, and cycle for a day, a weekend, a couple of weeks or an entire season; -Ride across Canada on a tour that follows country roads; -Explore bicycle paths in Canadas major cities; -Know what to expect using the detailed tour descriptions that include terrain, road conditions, distance logs and easy-to-read computer-generated maps; -Get all necessary information about Canada whether you are arriving from outside the country or are already here; and -Learn tips to help you choose a bicycle, pack your panniers and plan your tour. All the information you need is contained in this one handy volume. Experience Canada in the unique way that only bicycle touring allows!
