

THE FOOD BRIDGE TO EVERYWHERE: Confessions of an Old Foodophile

Indeed, there is no foodophile like an old foodophile. The Food Bridge to Everywhere, Confessions of an Old Foodophile is a food memoir artfully crafted to entertain and inform food lovers, real and armchair world travelers, gourmets, gourmands, creative cooks and memorabilia buffs. The venerable author has lived a rich life and writes about it beautifully. He reveals his story like a pastry chef creating a Napoleon with lovingly stacked transformative layers of discoveries and lifes passages. He adds depth and feeling from his personal experiences, exposes the essence of his and generic food obsessions and infuses appropriate scientific clarity from his thirty plus years as a cardiologist. An apprentice in a notable French restaurant in San Francisco, caterer for friends and fund raisers, restaurant reviewer and prolific food and travel writer, Dr. Karpman brings the reader with him to the corners of the earth and braids an often sensitive and amusing page-turner like a Shabbat challah, warm out of the oven.
