

The Grand National: The Official Illustrated History

Aintree's Grand National is the world's most famous steeplechase, watched by 100,000 spectators on the course and by millions more television viewers in their homes. It's a race that enthralled the nation every spring, a race steeped in over 160 years of heritage peppered with unforgettable names and memories. This book recounts the fascinating stories of achievement and courage that have been occurring at the Grand National since Lottery won the very first race back in 1839.
